Alumni Association Welcomes Newly Elected Officers!

At the end of 2004, the Association held elections as stated in the bylaws. Elections are held every two years, and any alumni Brother in good standing may run for any position and or vote in the election.

Thank you to everyone who voted and to those that have served as an officer! Here are your officers for 2004-2006:

President:

Ray Traficante

Vice President:

Adam Kielbasa

Treasurer:

Walter Staron

Secretary:

Anita Staron

Correspondent:

Christopher Dymon

All the officers are focused on further developing alumni ties in addition to supporting the collegiate chapter!

Ten Years Of The post-Script!

We hope that all of you had a wonderful holiday season! This year marks the tenth anniversary of our alumni association's newsletter. This issue is being constructed and edited by Brother Chris Dymon ('04) the association's newly elected Correspondent. Chris will be contacting many of you for input and suggestions regarding the "post-Script". Adam Kielbasa ('04) (VP) will be joining Chris as a newly elected officer of the PDC Alpha Sigma Alumni Association and those incumbents retaining their positions are Ray Traficante (Pres), Wally Staron (Treasurer), and Anita Staron (Secretary). A special thanks goes out to Amy Lodolce and Rich Browne for their past service to the Alumni Association. Amy will still retain her position as Faculty Advisor to the collegiate chapter. We look forward to another great year for our collegiate members at the University of Illinois. Some of our alumni will be involved in the annual "Alumni Roundtable" group discussion with the students. This is a great time for them to ask questions of the alumni pertaining to their professional careers. As always the "Spring Formal" that is hosted by the students is a wonderful event for alumni to attend (information below). The annual "Kno-Biggie Party and Picnic" will again be hosted by Ray Traficante. Watch for a flyer with the next issue of the "post-Script"!

Alpha Sigma Chapter Collegiate Ski Trip - An Alumnus Perspective.

The tradition continues! A few years back the Phi Delta Chi Class of 2004 found a cozy cabin tucked away in the woods of Wisconsin Dells. That year over 40 Brothers gathered for a weekend of rest, relaxation and bonding. This past January, the current collegiate Brothers gathered again in the same cabin to continue the annual ski trip tradition. Alumni Brothers Chris Dymon and Adam Kielbasa arrived Saturday January 15th and were greeted by Scott Siegert and friends, as the remainder of the Brothers left for breakfast. We unpacked our sleeping bags, paintball guns, and snacks, as we waited for the Brothers to return. The rest of the day was spent meeting everyone and sharing a few drinks. Later that evening a number of us went to town to take in a movie and afterwards the majority of the Brothers gathered at a local restaurant for a nice steak dinner. Afterwards some Brothers took in some karaoke at a local bar while Chris and I headed over the Ho Chunk Casino. Two hours and two dealers later, Chris and I broke even and headed back to the cabin. The rest of the night was spent at the cabin with drinks in hand. Chris and I headed back to Chicago the next morning having made new friends and hopefully leaving good impressions as Alumni.

A Skiing We Will Go!

Since the Collegiate Brothers have their ski trip, a few Alumni Brothers decided to take a ski trip of their own at the start of March. Check out the pictures of beautiful Colorado below. In the future we would like to develop this trip and have more alumni to come out and enjoy the slopes!
