October 2002

Volume 7 Issue 5

Greetings Phi Delta Chi Brothers,

We certainly hope that all had a great summer. I am sure that our collegiate brothers were all eager to resume their classes, and as always looking forward to the “rush” events of the first semester. The “Tiki Tiki Party”, Hayride and “Big Brother Little Brother Party” were as always loads of fun. The chapter has been very active in community and professional service projects. As alumni, we are always pleased to have our collegiate brothers represent the chapter in a positive manner.

This year the students had their annual retreat at the Blackwell Forest Preserve in Warrenville, IL. The retreat started early on Sunday morning with the entire executive committee of the collegiate chapter and many alumni in attendance. Following many hours of self evaluation and goal setting, we had a pleasant picnic lunch provided by the Alumni Chapter.
